Terms and conditions concerning participation of the National Econometricians Day 2024 (in Dutch: Landelijke Econometristendag 2024, abbreviated as LED 2024)

Landelijk Orgaan der Econometrische Studieverenigingen, abbreviated as LOES, in statutory terms located in Utrecht, will organize the LED 2024 with the following conditions:

A. General

1. The Landelijke Econometristendag 2024 will take place on Monday February 5, 2024, in a physical setting at the Hotel & Congrescentrum Leeuwenhorst, Noordwijk. However, this can change due to circumstances beyond our control. The LOES has the right to change the real life event to an online event.
2. The LOES has the right to cancel the event at any time due to any circumstances beyond its control and without any possible compensation for the participants or anyone else.
3. The LOES cannot be held responsible in any way for any damage or loss of personal items that occur during the event.

B. Participation

4. In order to be considered for participation, students should have received a confirmation mail for participation after subscribing on the enrollment platform.
5. In total 750 participants are allowed to participate at the LED 2024. The LOES has the right to increase or decrease this number.
6. Participation is only possible for members of the following associations: Asset | Econometrics, FAECTOR, Kraket, Vectum, VESTING or VSAE.
7. Participation is only possible for students in the fields of Econometrics, Actuarial sciences or Operations Research.
8. For students enrolled in a (pre-) master or PhD program in one of the above mentioned fields, enrollments open on 13 November 2023, 20.24.
9. For students enrolled in a bachelor program in one of the above mentioned fields and who have started this program in 2021 or before, enrollments open on 13 November, 2023, 20.24.
10. Students who started their bachelor after 2021 cannot participate at the LED 2024.
11. Students who are on the blacklist are excluded from participation at the LED 2024.
12. Selection for the LED 2024 will be based on the time of your enrollment. Students who are not selected will not be permitted to the LED 2024. However, when entered to the waiting list procedure a second selection is still possible. This procedure is further discussed in section C2. Discussion or feedback regarding the selection is not possible.
13. Students who enroll after the maximum number of participants is reached, will be placed on a waiting list.
14. Students who have a secured place at the LED 2024, will receive an information email on Monday January 8, 2024 at the latest.
15. Students who are on the waiting list will be reminded about this on Monday December 18, 2023 at the latest.
16. For students that have secured a place at the LED 2024, the deadline for submitting preferences regarding companies is Sunday November 26, 2023, 23.59 hours.
17. The assignments of the Company Cases & the Speeddates will be communicated to the students personally on Sunday February 4, 2024 at the latest. Discussion or feedback regarding the assignment is not possible.
18. By applying for the LED 2024, you accept the terms and conditions. No controversy will be taken into consideration.

C1. Obligations participant

19. The participant commits him or herself to pay the participation fee of €7,50.

20. The participation fee only needs to be paid in case the student is selected for participation.
21. Cancellation of participation at the LED 2024 without any valid reason is possible until Sunday November 26, 2023, 23.59 hours. The participant will not receive the full amount of €7,50, as €0,99 of the fee is non-refundable.
22. Cancellation of participation at the LED 2024 without any valid reason after Sunday November 26, 2023, will result in a fine of €50,-; in words fifty euros. In addition to the fine, the participation fee will be charged and the student will be placed on the blacklist. In case the participant behaves inappropriately, the organization can exclude the student from further participation and place the student on the blacklist.
23. The participant is obliged to participate at the following parts of the event: the opening plenary session, the company case and/or the speeddates & company fair to which they're assigned, the lunch, the closing session, the networking drink, and the recruitment dinner. When the participant does not attend all parts without any valid reason, the organization is allowed to place the participant on the blacklist and give them a fine of €70,-; in words seventy euros. Illness without medical certificate or connection loss without statement from your internet provider will not be accepted as valid reasons.
24. If a stayover ticket is purchased, the participant is obliged to ensure that the ticket is used to obtain a room key. If the organization finds that that the key is not obtained, the organization is allowed to give the participant a fine of €30,-; in words thirty euros. Note that it is allowed to give the stayover ticket to someone else. The participant under which the ticket is purchased is responsible for its use, and will receive the fine if the above requirements are not met.
25. If the LED, due to any circumstances, needs to be scaled down, the LED cannot guarantee that everyone who purchased a ticket, can attend the LED 2024.
26. If the LED, due to any circumstances, needs to be held online, your ticket is still valid. You are obliged to participate in the day program of this online event, even if you have purchased a ticket for the physical event. However, the LOES cannot guarantee that everyone who has purchased a ticket, can participate in the online event.
27. If necessary, you are obliged to show a valid COVID-19 QR code. If you are not able to show this QR code, you cannot participate in the LED 2024 and you will be given a fine of €70,- ; in words seventy euro. See section 23.
28. For section 21, 22, and 23, the organization of the LED 2024 is allowed to determine the validity of the reason given for cancellation of participation.

C2. Obligations students on the waiting list

29. Cancellation of a position on the waiting list of the LED 2024 without any valid reason is possible until Sunday November 26, 2023, 23.59 hours.
30. Before Monday December 18, 2023, 23.59 hours, the students on the waiting list will be contacted. At that moment, they can decide to be placed on the definitive waiting list by informing the organization. In case a student is placed on the definitive waiting list, they are expected to be available on Monday February 5, 2024, and can be called upon for participation at the LED 2024 until Sunday February 4, 2024, 11.59 hours at the latest. If the student is on the definitive waiting list, but cannot attend the LED after being called upon, this will result in a fine of €50,-; in words fifty euros. If students do not want to be put on the definitive waiting list, they will be definitively excluded from participation at the LED 2024.
31. Cancellation of a position on the definitive waiting list without any valid reason after Monday January 8, 2024, 23.59 hours will result in a fine of €30,-; in words thirty euro.
32. For section 28 and 30, the organization of the LED 2024 is allowed to determine the validity of the reason given for cancellation of a position on the (definitive) waiting list.

D. Blacklist

33. Students who are placed on the blacklist, will be informed personally. They will be excluded from participation in any events which are organized by the LOES for the next five years.

34. There is no opportunity to discuss the blacklist.
35. The blacklist is only available for the boards of the study associations who belong to Stichting LOES and the board of the LED, and will thus not be published.
36. If a student is on the blacklist of their study association at the time of their registration for the LED 2024, the corresponding study association will remove the student from the selection and they will inform them with the reasons for not being permitted to participate.

E. Obligations of the organization

37. The organization is obligated to provide a lunch, drinks, and a dinner during the LED 2024, in case of a physical LED.
